Originally from Hanover, Indiana, Mr. Palmer graduated from Muskingum College (New Concord, Ohio) in 1992 and The Brandeis School of Law at The University of Louisville (Louisville, Kentucky) in 1995. He is admitted to practice law in Indiana and Kentucky and maintains an active practice in both states. He is the sole member of Pete Palmer Law LLC located in New Albany, Indiana, directly across the Ohio River from Louisville, Kentucky.

During the early years of his practice (1995-2000), Mr. Palmer worked as an insurance defense lawyer in Louisville, Kentucky, concentrating on medical malpractice and products liability matters for various clients. However, in 2000, Mr. Palmer transitioned his practice to the representation of the injured in a variety of areas. During his 20+ years of legal practice, he has successfully tried civil cases to verdict in both states, including automobile accidents, products liability matters, premises liability claims and medical malpractice cases.

In 2011, Mr. Palmer received the distinction of being named a Super-Lawyer by his peers for the state of Indiana and has been so recognized each year since. Most notably, he was named the “2012 Trial Lawyer of the Year” by the Indiana Trial Lawyers Association – the highest award the association bestows each year. He has also been an “AV” rated lawyer by his peers via Martindale-Hubbell since 2013.

In 2014, as a compliment to his litigation practice, Mr. Palmer completed the Mediation Skills Training program at Northwestern University (Chicago) and began serving as a mediator in civil cases in Kentucky and Indiana. His experience on both sides of the courtroom provided a unique background and skill set which he now uses to help others resolve difficult cases via mediation. While Mr. Palmer maintains a small and select civil litigation practice, most of his professional time now involves handling mediations and working to resolve cases for other litigators.

In his spare time, Mr. Palmer enjoys Indiana Basketball, photography, tennis and spending time with his wife, his three children and his two beloved Labrador Retrievers.
